

Conditions for Tomorrow vouchers

1. The issuer of the voucher is Tomorrow GmbH, Neuer Pferdemarkt 23, 20359 Hamburg
2. The vouchers can only be used when opening a new Tomorrow-account by persons aged 18 or over who are resident in Germany, Spain, Italy or Austria
3. The voucher can be redeemed in our Tomorrow App
4. The customer who receives the voucher from the buyer can conclude an account contract with Tomorrow, which becomes subject to a fee after the free months stated on the voucher have expired. The fee depends on the account model selected and can be viewed here: <https://assets.tomorrow.one/de-DE/legal/preisliste/preisliste.pdf>
We will notify the account holder in good time before the free months expire so that he/she can cancel beforehand if necessary
5. In individual cases, our partner Solaris may refuse to open an account. In this case, we will refund the credit to the buyer at his/her request or issue a new voucher to another person
6. The voucher is transferable. Tomorrow can make payment to the respective holder(s) with discharging effect. This shall not apply if we have knowledge or grossly negligent ignorance of the non-authorisation, legal incapacity or lack of power of representation of the respective holder(s)
7. The voucher can only be redeemed for the account model (Now, Change, Zero) specified on the voucher
8. The voucher is not partially redeemable
9. Only one voucher can be redeemed per account opening. The voucher can only be redeemed before the account is opened. Subsequent offsetting is not possible.
10. The voucher can only be used to open an account with Tomorrow, not for the purchase of further vouchers or other services/goods
11. The voucher balance is neither paid out in cash nor does it bear interest
12. The voucher is valid until 31.12.2027
